What do you communicate to the world? You are telling a story to others throughout your life. What story do you tell by your actions? Every event you chose to participate in or ignore is part of your legacy. How would someone else describe your life? Would your life be told as a legend, a fairy-tale, a nonevent, or a horrific nightmare? Choices, your life is full of choices. (Quick, think of a random word, pick a word, any word will do for this example. What word did you chose? So many choices, what will you think about next is a most basic example.) Every moment of every day, deep in the minutia of the microscopic, at the most basic element of living is found your choice. Your final performance isn't had yet. If you're reading this you can still change your story. Your next sentence isn't written, how will you write the next chapter?
