7-part Audio Cassettes Lectures produced by the Teaching Company. Lectures are the most famous professors of literature in the United States. 1996. The texts featured in this course are so richly varied and cover so many centuries, societies, literary movements, and genres that you may think there is little to connect them. But an interesting thing happens as you listen to these 84 half-hour lectures. What seem to have been a few isolated literary peaks soon resolve into a detailed landscape, in which you see the full panorama of relationships between periods, authors, and the paths that brought us where we are in literature today.
