Quarterback Sneak

Dana Thompson is an ambitious black news reporter with big plans for the future, that is, until her aspirations are crushed after receiving an assignment to interview a college football player. She can't help but pout and look down on her assignment until she gets a pleasant surprise. She gets to interview the promising new quarterback John Reynolds, who is a local hero, a ladies' man, and a strong male presence who just happens to be underdressed in the locker room when Dana is allowed in for the interview. John Reynolds is a difficult interview for sure but eventually he reveals his true character...plus he reveals he has a thing for strong black woman. But Dana is determined to get a good story and not become just another football groupie. Good luck, because what John Reynolds wants he always gets!

Taken by the Quarterback

Quarterback Terry Clamor is the Most Valuable Player after a huge Super Bowl win. He is a well known party animal and has an ego the size of his home state. But he may have met his match in Diana Hart, an ambitious news reporter that is sent to interview him days after the big game. Terry plays mind games, testing Diana's resolve and taunting her professional work ethic by inviting her over for drinks. There is an attraction on both sides and eventually Diana and Terry lose themselves in the frenzy of a strictly sexual affair.

They become obsessed with each other and this leads to explosive results. Before long, an affair becomes a reckless relationship and lifelong commitment is just one mistake away...
