Happily Ever Before Aimee V Pitta

HAPPILY EVER BEFORE is best described as the comedic literary love child of the hit film's Bridesmaids and Baby Mama. It is the story of two sisters, who while watching a Lifetime movie marathon (of course!) make a drunken pact that changes their lives forever. HAPPILY EVER BEFORE, a fractured fairytale, tells the story of Grace, the free spirit older sister, who promises Clair, her wound-too-tight younger sister, that she'd have her baby, should the need ever arise. But she certainly never thought she'd have to "deliver". Now everyone, from Clair's WASP-y in-laws to Diane, Grace and Clair's mom, who has put her own life on hold, to Clair's husband, Henry, who has a compulsive need to give Grace bizarre and overly personal pregnancy gifts, to George, Grace's best friend who now needs to find a new drinking buddy, are dealing with situations they never dreamed of. As the sisters are faced with hormonal surges, new romances, and a calcium enriched diet, they are forced to navigate this new family dynamic and test their sisterly love in ways that keep the reader laughing out loud.
