What I Want (Chop, Chop Series) L.N. Cronk

Marco has always known that he's different, but he has never let his birth defects keep him from getting what he wants. And what he wants is simple: to spend the rest of his life with the woman that he loves. But that might not be possible . . . and it might not have anything to do with how he looks.

This stand-alone companion novel to the Chop, Chop series gives readers a glimpse into the life of David and Laci's youngest child.
