DANCE OF DECEPTION Karin Guzman

The story revolves around Monica, a divisional manager at a department store, who is frustrated by a career, which leaves her feeling unfulfilled and empty.

Her private life is disappointing as well, until two men, one charismatic and secretive, the other upstanding and caring, enter her life and throw her heart and mind into a state of confusion.

The characters in this novel are bound to each other by their place of work, a cesspool of gossip, intrigue and shallow relationships.
