Always a planner, never a bride...until one man vows to mend a broken promise.

Tulle and Tulips, Book 5.5

Lori Mullins walks a tightrope every day of her life, acutely aware that there are no guarantees. No guarantee she's left the demons of her past behind. No guarantee that her future is assured.

Though she believes love is a powerful force, she can't help but wonder if it is all-conquering.

Trevor Masters runs a successful business, but professional loyalties fail to fulfill his dreams. Dreams that the woman he loves forgives herself for the past. Dreams that she will finally accept his offer for a shared future.

Though some dismiss dreams as nothing more than nice pastimes, he can't stop believing in their power.

And he finally feels like he's close to making this one come true.

Warning: Contains a man whose world shatters when he breaks a promise, and a woman who flounders in the debris. All wrapped up in a Glittering Groot. Seriously.
