Clean Western Mail Order Bride Romance with a Happy Ending

Alice Montgomery has lived in the lap of luxury her entire life. When she is signed up to be a mail order bride, she doesn't think it will go anywhere. However, to her horror, a man twenty years her senior has taken interest in this shy and young girl.

Despite her misgivings and her pleas against going, Alice's mother packs her away to go live in the Wild West, where cowboys run alongside Indians and they don't know what proper lettering looks like.

However, there is more than just leaving luxury that makes Alice panic. She has never been able to hold a decent conversation with someone of the opposite sex in her entire life; save her late father and missing brother.

This is like a nightmare come true for the eighteen year old, but she resigns herself to this fate to give her family a little more money so that they can perhaps convince her wayward brother to return to the family and get a decent job.

When the train is hijacked, Alice becomes the hostage of the charming and dangerous William Smith who is so easy to talk to it is like magic. For the first time, Alice does not feel terrified of men and is able to talk with him. She quickly finds that her heart is no longer her own.

Will this train robber be able to save her from a fate that would have doomed her to live in silent misery, or will she die before she manages to make it to the end of this perilous journey?
