An American Musician's Experiences During World War II Richard Shill

From boot camp and band camp State side, to England, France, Belgium, Germany and the end of war in Europe; but that was not the end for my father. Next, he would also serve in the Pacific Theatre. From Germany back to France, he sailed through the Mediterranean past Gibraltar and straight to the Panama Canal. From there they went to the Philliphines and then finally on to Japan via "The Steve Brody". By the way, I believe he got to see General Omar Bradley (up close) and General Patton in Europe. It was one hell of a ride and I thank you for your service. You were the best and I love you Dad.
