The Idols CVRRAN

The Idols is a seminal work in the legacy of literary fiction. With hypnotic prose that immediately harnesses the reader's attention, the author relates a story of unparallelled and imaginative circumstances.

A modern man founds himself delivered from luxurious surroundings to the confines of an underdeveloped and remote country. What realizations lay in wait for him when he encounters a dominating religious order and the fabled 'ruins of the ancients'. Our hero will find himself face to face with man reborn.

"Curran's novel is one of extremely vivid, lucid descriptive narration. With the brilliant, adept writing in this novel, I feel confident enough to recommend it in the highest possible terms!" -Chris Greggory, Author Buckshot Pie

"The Idols is an exemplary piece of literary fiction where the author, Curran, prods us to examine the western lifestyle and the hollowness that pervades our modern practices and societal norms." -Niki Goll, Editor
