Original Voices: Homeless and Formerly Homeless Women's Writings Mary's Place Women

A moving collection of spontaneous, lightly and unedited poems and short prose pieces written by the women of Mary's Place, a day shelter for homeless and formerly homeless women in Seattle. In the foreword, Pat Schneider, author and founder of Amherst Writers & Artists, says, "Original Voices" is about revolution daring to value voices that have not only been excluded from our definitions of literary art; they are voices that have been excluded from acceptance across all of the lines of ordinary human dialogue. Book proceeds will benefit women and writing at Mary's Place.
