Samantha was alone in the world. Destined to be by herself for eternity. The only family she had was her mother. A lot of good she was before she whisked away into the night with one of her boy toys and left Samantha alone to defend herself against an angry and vile stepdad. She did the only thing she could think of. She ran.

But what she found in the woods behind her home would change her life forever. As she's chased through the woods she doesn't know what or who is behind her. When she runs into Josiah and Liam she instantly feels for them. However in the end she can only choose one. Can she choose between them? And when she finds out a secret they've been hiding can she stay with either one of them at all?

Isabelle looks at the paper and is ecstatic to find the news. Can she do it? She has waited for the moment to leave never thinking it would come. She knows that she is being dishonest and hates herself for it but knows there is no other way to get away from the abuse she has lived every day since her parent's death. She will be a mail order bride and get the free travel. She plans on leaving before she meets up with the new husband.

Events turn and she finds herself in Shawn's lap. He is the one that sent for her. She is disturbed to find out that he is actually a werewolf. The biggest problem is that he is tender and kind and makes her want to believe in men caring for their women. Can she leave her past back in Iowa and open her heart once more or will she be scared and run from something that could make her happier than she has ever been?

Book #3 Preview

Elizabeth doesn't have time for the traditional way of meeting people. Since her heart was broke two years ago she keeps to herself except her trustful assistant Brittany. When Brittany persuades her to go on an online dating service she finally agrees.

She is swept up in the life of online dating and meets two men that could easily mend her heart from the broken state it is in. When she finds out that they are actually not what they seem then she runs. After one heated night she finds herself with two lovers and now she must choose. Does she choose the extremely sensual vampire or the rough and tough werewolf to help her put the pieces of her heart back together?

Book # 4 Preview

Renee Montgomery was a woman that didn't need anyone's help. When things got rough then she turned the tables on them. Being the only female bartender in the little bar she found herself the object of many unwanted touches and gestures. Finally deciding it was too much she takes matters into her own hands until someone steps in to take care of it for her.

Headstrong and stubborn she refuses to accept the help and ends up pushing the man away. When attacked late one night she is grateful that Stephen has again showed up to be her knight in shining armor. After a night of heated passion she finds out something that she can't grasp. Can she accept him for who he is or will she walk away forever?
