Icy Pretty Love L.A. Rose

Glass-doll beauty. A shy, proper smile. Georgette Montgomery is the perfect billionaire's fiancé.

Or she would be, if she existed.

A dark past. A smile that hides everything. At nineteen, Rae Grove escapes her disaster life by pretending to be other people—specifically, whoever the man paying her that night wants her to be.

Until she's offered enough money for a one-way ticket to a better life. All she has to do is fly to Paris and pretend to be the fiancé of young business tycoon Cohen Ashworth for one month. Within an hour of meeting Cohen, Rae knows three things about him:

1. He hates everyone and everything.
2. He has abundant wit and a knife-sharp tongue.
3. He uses 2 to make everyone aware of 1.

Before long, Rae's determined to crack open his unbreakable shell. Cohen's determined to stay unbroken.

But no one escapes unscathed when two opposite worlds collide.
