Power #3 (The Power Romance Series - Book #3) Claire Adams

Politically-minded (and not incredibly romantically inclined) Amanda officially falls for the President of the United States, the tall and dark Xavier Callaway, after a romantic getaway in a secret White House Room. But when he tells her he's in love with her, that he'll leave the First Lady for her, she must act quickly if she wants to save her career—and his, as well.

Meanwhile, Jason—that bastard who works beneath her in the campaign—is holding photos of she and the president ransom and forcing her to do his bidding. Everywhere she turns, she's met with paranoia, or else the loving embrace from the president.

Should Amanda tell Xavier what's going on with Jason and risk exposing those photos to the American people?

Should Amanda allow the president to leave the First Lady for her, because their love is so strong?

Will Amanda choose her career over her incredible love for the president?
