Kill Your Parents Myles Byrne-Dunhill

A black, surrealist 'time-travel' comedy revolving around a group of self-centered teenagers and their exploration of the paradox, 'if you traveled back in time and murdered your parents before you were born, would you still exist?'. What starts off as an indulgent night in the late 1990s, quickly becomes a vicious crusade of immortality and immorality; traveling through time and space with their spiritual guide/new age musician, 'Yanni', the group encounters and explores classic sci-fi paradoxes and philosophy with a ruthless and apathetic generation-x bent. Things only get more complicated and hilarious from there. The very nature of reality gets questioned and torn a new one, and the result is like a blood bath, butterfly-effected Bill & Ted, or if Dennis Cooper had written Weekend at Bernie's.
