The Rapunzelle fairytale its all about the hair. This version of the beloved classic stars a black Rapunzelle. When Queen Naomi holds her annual “Hair Fan Fair” a mysterious old peddler gifts her with a lock of unicorn hair. He tells her that one hair in hot water will make a tea to make her hair long for a year. Thinking a little is good and a lot is better the Queen consumes the whole lock. She wakes up at midnight to hair spurting out of her head until it reaches the floor! Later she finds out she is pregnant and wonders what her child’s hair will be like. But one of the Queen’s ladies is so jealous and mad at the her for not sharing the precious unicorn hair she steals her child away. She locks the girl in a tower strong hold and harvests her glorious hair to sell to the wig and weave makers. Rapunzelle (known only as Zelle now) grows up and becomes lonely. So the evil lady who she believes is her mother kidnaps a handsome Sheppard boy and throws him in the tower with her. She hopes they will make more magical haired babies—but Ty realizes who she is and he has other plans.
