Thank You For Coming Back! Raymond Cook

Shona and Mary Leah were 35 year old twins attending college. While walking down a brushy trail leading to a grocery store Shona is attacked and murdered. Terrified, Mary flee's for her life. Unable to bear the terror of seeing her sister murdered, Mary ends up being committed to a mental health facility. Four months into her therapy Mary is released to her mother to try to start her life over. After taking karate classes Mary begins walking down the same trail her sister was murdered on in the hopes she too will be attacked. Not only will she face her sister's attacker but she will see the ghostly spirit of Shona as well.
