From Amazon best selling author Malinda Martin, return to Charity, Florida for another heartwarming Christmas romance.

Joy Bisset is growing to love the little central Florida town of Charity. Not a good idea. In order to keep her heart intact she's determined that she will not stay anywhere longer than six months. But seeing Holly, Noel, and their lonely father Ross struggling, she can't help but lend a hand. She just has to remember not to love them too much. Because she is leaving.

Ross Jackson doesn't have time for romance. He's swamped as it is, running a business and most importantly raising his two children, Holly and Noel. But the lonely widower can't resist the petite new waitress at Hal's Place and gratefully accepts her help with the kids.

Then when Joy needs help, Ross decides maybe he and his family can come to her rescue. It doesn't have to be personal and he doesn't have to forget the vows he made to his dead wife. And she doesn't have to lose her heart to the strong, handsome man.

But Christmas is a season for miracles, especially in Charity.
