Mitch on the Tail End of the Old West a Personel Biography Of Arthur Roy Mitchell, Western Artist

Dean F. Krakel

Artist Roy Mitchell was born in the waning days of the Old West, and knew the men who knew Kit Carson. He spent days cowboying, and when the days of ranching were over, he kept the West alive in thousands of drawings and paintings. Dean Krakel tells us in "Mitch" that Mitchel himself was a product of the West he loved--opinionated, crusty and independent. Dean Krakel headed the Cowboy Hall of Fame and is much like Mitchell. Considered by some to be one of the best designed art books, "Mitch" is filled with full-page photographs of the West, Mitchel and Mitchell's art and almost every page is illustrated with a snapshot or small drawing. This book is sure to please those with a love of the West and cowboy art.
