Theater Nurse Deirdre Warwick is determined that the two children who had been left in her care will have the best life possible. But she's struggling with the challenges of being a single mom.

When Dr. Shay Melburne enters her life suddenly Deirdre finds the confidence to take control of her future. Working with Shay, she finds herself falling hopelessly in love with him.

Then Shay offers a marriage of convenience to help secure the children's future—he offer her the security both she and the children need, but can he offer her his love?
