Tatlock s produced a winner.... Publishers Weekly

When Elizabeth Gunnar accepts a teaching position at the preparatory school she attended as a girl, she revisits ghosts of the past and old self-doubts. But she is returning to more than a place to memories, mysteries, and an old love. Once there, she meets unexpected challenges and challenging new people...and she is reminded of the faith that first captured her there in what she called her moments of being. A rich, complex weave of character, mystery and divine epiphanies, Every Secret Thing will have you turning the pages late into the night.

Tatlock s prose is simply exquisite. Michele Howe, faithfulreader.com
