All I Want for Christmas Is You Jane Kelly Kosek

"The sound of the door opening and seeing Carrie's accepting brown eyes makes him take her in his arms and lead her to the living room – to the very spot where he kissed her so long ago."

Mark and Carrie haven't seen each other in seven years since high school. They are both home for Christmas visiting family and a chance encounter thrusts the two back into each other's lives. Mark knows he's still in love with her but can Carrie overcome the hurt Mark caused her back in high school in order to start over with him again?

Will this turn out to be a Merry Christmas after all?
