Meet Aurora. She's a travel writer with a passion for photography. She's creative, witty, and adventurous. She wants one thing more than any other: to achieve success in the career of her dreams. Meet Ben. He's a backcountry guide with a passion for horsemanship. He's confident, solemn, and mysterious. He wants one thing more than any other: to prevent a treasured way of life from dying. Aurora and Ben cross paths in Patagonia, embarking on what promises to be a lighthearted adventure. But then one night, their journey is disrupted by a devastating event. At dawn . . . nothing will be the same. NEW! This Special Edition volume includes the first two Patagonia novels plus a bonus Epilogue and Author's Note.
