"Debt, divorce, and disappointment await the average graduate with average thoughts..." So begins Life-Altering Choices Graduates Encounter, a journey designed to improve the decision-making abilities of 18-23 year-olds in the areas of money, relationships, time, and values. Dr. Maue provides readers with entertaining, non-average insights from a broad array of behavioral research, including investing, psychology, and philosophy. "Encounter" choices within dating networks, career planning, and other significant Life events are combined with references to respected experts (e.g., Socrates, Buss, Malkiel, Seligman), providing graduates with multiple options for credibly advancing toward key life goals. Additional reflection questions offer readers the opportunity to personalize the insights and create happier, more fulfilling lives. Just in time for graduation...
