The Phantom Of The Opera: Raoul Teacher's Good Old Stories from The World in English & Korean
Won-gil Park

There are many good-old stories inheriting from mouth to mouth or from book to book around the world. This book is intended to let the world realize how Beautiful & Wonderful human being's nature is.

One thing you have to remember is that this story was originally designed to let the Korean young kids understand English better through good stories about 12 years ago by me, Raoul Teacher, (Park, Won-gil in Korean real name)

All the people have their own stories called culture, and the culture of theirs is the real power that must affect the whole world. For example, The spirit of Korea runs through Korean Wave throughout the world nowadays, and I am sure it was derived from this kind of good old stories. Furthermore, the Phantom of The Opera must be another powerful culture for me throughout my English learning & teaching life of about 20 years, as the most sensational motivation of me, Raoul Teacher.
