If you've been out in the mall, at a juice bar, or have Instagram, chances are you've seen what's come to be known as a green smoothie. No, a green smoothie is not a produce to give your skin that green glow that everyone loves. Instead, a green smoothie is a drink created from blending a bunch of leafy green vegetables, some fruit, , water, ice, and maybe a few other ingredients depending on an individual's taste.

Our job here at Culinary Canary is to help you decide what those individual tastes could be. Green smoothies that are sweet, sour, spicy, and filling are all part of Every Day Green Smoothie Recipes. Where green smoothies came from, the benefits of consuming green smoothies, the concerns surrounding the nutritional shakes, and popular ingredients are all described inside. Bases, variations, and go to smoothies should be a part of every blender's repertoire, and Every Day Green Smoothie Recipes allows everyone to start tossing their vegetables in a blender the moment they open the book.
