This is designed for students in grades 5-12. It is a step-by-step process to writing an entire novel. A full teay English Composition program with week-by- week lesson plans. Grammar skills are learned within the context of writing a novel. it works best when there is teamwork between the student and the teacher/coach. The reacher Guide facilitates this and is highly recommended. An actual novel is the finished product. Many students to whom I have suggested the program tell me Now I know why my stories never came together like I wanted them to. I never thought them through in this manner," We will create custom packages to provide books for however many students you are coaching.
