Our literature circle program provides an opportunity for all students to implement effective reading strategies that ensure comprehension and retention of information read in novels or text book materials. The organization of our program enables all students an equal access to the learning process in a safe environment that lends itself to reading success. A spirit of enjoyment and engagement pervades the room with students on task. Class or group discussions are open conversations about the material being read encouraging both personal connections and open-ended questions. Our program is effective in content area classrooms as well as language arts, and reading classes. Circles provide a cooperative learning experience in which students collaborate to better understand the material. It is student centered as they take responsibility for their own learning. Literature Circles: A Ready...Set...Teach Literature Circle Program for the CONTENT AREAS Grades 6-12 was written to strategically reinforce and practice the essential skills that enhance comprehension for middle and high school students.
