Need (Volume 1) K I Lynn, N Isabelle Blanco

Sometimes love happens at first sight, even when you're at an age where you can't comprehend what it means. It was just a crush. They were only kids, after all. But what happens when that feeling never goes away? Brayden and Kira have been neighbors for years, and best friends since they met. They have a connection that is evident to many, and it's haunted them their whole lives. Teenage hormones rage, turning their friendship into something neither can handle. The attraction is carnal, all-consuming, and it seems like it's only a matter of time before Brayden loses control. Everything slams to a halt when their single parents decide to get remarried . . . to each other. Bad decisions and broken friendships make living across the hall from the one person you want above all difficult. Luckily for Brayden, it's only for a few months before he's off to college in another state, leaving Kira to face high school alone. Brayden tries to stay away, to forget her, but it's an impossible task he fails at time and time again. Kira is morphing from a sexy teenager to an irresistible woman, one that knows what she wants and seems hell-bent on getting it. As Kira's eighteenth birthday approaches, Brayden has a decision to make. Does he keep running away from the thing he wants the most or does he run toward it? Is it possible to ever be happy without the one person you need? -----
----- "I'm Brayden, baby. The man you've been dreaming about your whole life. And I'm about to fucking show you why." Part 1 of a 2 part series.
