This intriguing worldwide search for origins of extant American Indian legends leads to the obscure beginnings of an ancient race. The trail of antiquity passes through North and South America, Europe, Asia and Africa. Eight years of research finds that early peoples of the Western Hemisphere may have known Christianity before Saints Patrick, Augustine, and Boniface converted Europe. In this volume, confronting man's origin and destiny strikes with a force like no other, a hidden chord in every human being who ventures back through unrecorded time. Further, it unearths global vistas for future readers of stone, bone, and, especially, of secret myths held sacred for millennia.
