What a slippery love triangle. Meet Ava a young entrepreneur that has it all; the money, the looks, however she's lacking in the love department from all angles.

Growing up without her mother or father and being raised by loved ones the unthinkable happens. Ava's heart turns cold as ice, and she starts having trust issues with everyone.

Then comes Amir a sexy street nigga. Amir has more skeletons than enough. Growing up, he had it rough, but with age come wisdom. After some jail time, he turns his life completely around and he's ready for whatever life throws at him.

What happens when Ava walks into his heart? Lines will be crossed, loyalty and love will be tested, and trust will be non-existent. Will Ava and Amir be able to withstand the storm or will it be too much for either of the two to manage?
