Evelyn confronts Zack about the picture she saw in the newspaper--but she is so angry, so consumed with insecurities that she doesn't give him the chance to attempt to explain the situation.

She breaks up with him but can't quite seem to shake herself out of thinking of him. Her roommate sets her up on a date and Evelyn agrees to go, but it's a disaster from the beginning and goes even worse when Zack tries to intervene. Though she thinks that she's gotten over him for good, the need to cover the championship game brings Evelyn's feelings back to the forefront--and when she discovers that her initial suspicions about the news story were wrong, she feels terrible that she may have ruined her relationship for good.
