George H. Rawls, Robert D. Patterson

Written by two renowned medical professionals, this is a book for every student from high school through medical school. Drs. Rawls and Patterson, along with medical students and residents provide a step-by-step road map that will lead and inspire even the less confident student to a career in medicine. It includes how to prepare for exams, how to present oneself before a review board, how to handle social and cultural competency issues, and diversity. Also includes a Foreword by Dr. Benjamin Carson
