``She groaned at the feel of his rippling muscles through his t-shirt, wanting to feel more.``

Billionaire, playboy, and thrill seeker—Eric Welton has it all. He does whatever he wants, whenever he wants and that works just fine for him.

However, with his father's retirement looming there's pressure for him to take over the family business. He knows he doesn't want to work in an office, but matters are complicated further when beautiful reporter Ellie Martin is assigned to interview him.

Ellie has always been devoted to her career so she accepts the assignment without hesitation, even though she has no interest in the heir to Welton Corporation. Eric's complete lack of direction disgusts her, and his attitude doesn't help. She can't deny her attraction to him, but she knows better than to give a bad boy her heart.

Eric can't fight the feelings she stirs in him and his lion's pull toward her, but he doesn't want to acknowledge what it means. She's a pain in his side and it is obvious how her low opinion of him is, but he doesn't want to think of what will happen once her assignment is concluded.

When Ellie stumbles on his secret, can he trust her with more than just keeping the secret, but his heart as well?
